

Weekly Parent Bulletin

Monday 12th May 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you to everyone who attended our 'Meet the Teacher' meetings last week. It was lovely to welcome so many of you into school and share your child's learning and successes across the year. These events are so important in supporting your child. Evidence shows just how joining up the learning, discussions and celebrations between home/school makes a huge difference to children's outcomes. If for any reason you were unable to make your appointment, please do just contact your class teacher or the office to arrange another time.

Year 4 Trip to Exeter

Year 4 had a fantastic time on their trip to Exeter! The children represented the school brilliantly with their excellent behaviour, curiosity, and big smiles all day long. It was a pleasure to hear about them being so engaged and excited.

Good Luck to Year 6

We'd also like to send our very best wishes to Year 6 as they head into their SATs next week. They have worked incredibly hard, and we are very proud of their dedication and positive attitude as they approach this important week in the Year 6 calendar and transition. We know they'll do their best and look forward to celebrating their own personal achievements and milestones! Thank you, teachers and parents, for supporting them so well.

Finally....

Like many of you we are sure, Sticklepath celebrated the 80th anniversary of VE Day this week. All the children have found out about it in classes, and we joined the rest of the country in honouring those that gave so much for our freedoms with a school 2-minute silence. Even the youngest children observed this moment very respectfully and thoughtfully. The personal highlight was joining Year 6 children at Forest School. They got to eat their own butter they had made, with jam and scones, whilst listening to 1940's songs. Thank you to Mandy and Mrs K who made this such a memorable experience.

We wish everyone a safe and happy weekend.

Ms Warner, Mr Blunt and all the staff at Sticklepath.

Claire our chair of our PTFA team would like to share her new email address –

claireptfa@gmail.com>

Our summer fayre which is organised by the lovely PTFA members is soon coming up. If you would like a stall at the fayre please email Claire, or if you want to help out in any way it would be much appreciated.

Roblox and Parental Controls - South West Grid for Learning

Roblox, the popular minecraft 'style' game has announced a new raft of parental controls. The website which ranks among the most popular games for children in the e-space, has previously been accused of possessing weak child protection tools. Their new raft of adaptations is important due to the game's position among school aged children. The new features have been adopted to allow parents to take control of their children's game time in a more comprehensive manner.

Parents will now be able to block individuals who communicate with their children, as well as have more detailed oversight over their usage of the programme. Real-time awareness measures have been increased and these changes represent a big step forward in making popular multiplayer games more secure for underaged users. If interested, the South-West Grid for Learning (SWGfL) has produced a comprehensive run down of these changes. Please follow the link below for more:

Year 1 – Multi Skills Festival

We had a lovely morning at Park school with our Yr1 children. Along with 200 other primary children they took part in lots of multi skills, - running, jumping, balancing and throwing. They all took part with great enthusiasm and were a credit to the school.

Congratulations

Bobby, Josh and Mason had a great day playing for Barnstaple Under 9's Rugby against teams from around the country.

V Day - Letters

This year marks the 80th anniversary of VE day (Victory in Europe) on the 8th of May. Millions of brave men and women served for our king and country and most of them never made it.

I was very inspired by watching the VE Day celebrations to investigate amazing charity work that helps support survivors and veterans of WW2 in their later years.

There is an amazing charity called VE Mail, who encourages schools and other organisations to receive a handwritten letter from an amazing survivor/ veteran. These letters are very heartwarming as they re-live what life was like on the front line in battle.

I have received a copy of the letter (see below) and I would love to get as many replies as possible. In the letter it would be great if you could ask some questions about their life in WW2, share your feelings about reading his account or even draw a picture.

It is important you only put your first name and age I.e. Holly aged 8.

The deadline to hand in the letters is the 2nd of June.

Thank you in advance

Lauren

Writing your replies

You can write your replies to your Veteran individually or as a whole class/group activity. Here's a templates to help children in drafting their responses.

Greeting: Start your letter by saying hello.

Example: "Dear Mr Jones," "Dear Veteran,"

Say Thank You: Thank the Veteran for their service and bravery.

Example: "Thank you for everything you did during World War II. Your courage helped bring peace to the world."

Share Your Feelings: Tell the Veteran how their story made you feel or what you learned.

Example: "I was amazed to learn how brave you were during the D-Day landings. It made me realise how important teamwork and hope are."

Ask a Question: You can ask the Veteran something you're curious about.

Example: "What is your happiest memory from VE Day?"

Ending Your Letter: Finish your letter with a kind message.

Example: "Wishing you happiness and good health. Thank you again for sharing your story with us."

Sign Your Name

Example: "Yours sincerely, Amelia"

Optional: Draw a Picture for the Veteran!

Dear friends,

My name is Colonel Joe Peterburs and I was a P-51 Mustang American fighter pilot during the Second World War.

I am writing to you as I fly to the UK from the USA, to return to the Kings Cliffe airfield near Peterborough, where I took part in 49 missions from November 1944.

In April 1945, I was taken prisoner after my plane was shot down just outside Berlin in Germany. I was held as a prisoner of war at Stalag III in Luckenwalde for a week, before escaping and fighting alongside the Russian Red Army until the war's end. On VE Day I was in Wittenberg, Germany, having been retrieved by an American army unit just a day or two before.

Though the war outside of Europe wasn't over, my first thought was that I was going to get home and marry my fiancé, Josephine, whom I named my aircraft after. I had proposed just before I left for the UK and when I returned, we quickly married, before the war felt like it really came to an end with VJ Day in August 1945.

The Second World War took me on a very different path in life. Before the war I had plans of becoming a priest and never marrying. Joining the airforce changed my whole perspective on life and where I thought I needed to be.

I am from a small town in Wisconsin and so coming to the UK felt like a totally new world. You don't have time to think about the external things when you're at war and I learnt from a young age the importance of concentrating on the task in hand and living life day by day.

My plane coming down close to Berlin was a big moment in my life. I should not have survived and yet I did. Years later, I became friends with the German soldier who I had shot down just 20 minutes before my own misfortune. He sprained both legs as he parachuted to the ground and in doing so was unable to fight again, something he believes saved his life.

We met again 60 years later in California, and he became known to my family as Papa Walter. Some people were confused by our friendship, but we knew that, despite being on opposite sides, we had both just been young men, each trying to protect our home. I believe it is important to be kind as it gives you more than it takes away from you, and in general it makes life a lot happier.

I went on to serve 36 years in the military and finally retired in 1979 at the rank of Colonel. When asked what bravery means to me, I would say it's hard to define. As long as you're doing your best, that's all that matters. If it ends up being something others would deem brave, fine, but you'll find most first responders, such as firefighters, don't feel brave, they are just doing their job. It's because of humankind's kindness and other good traits that we have bravery.

I urge your generation to seek peace and kindness. Life is important and should not be wasted. You have to love one another.

*Best wishes, your friend from across the pond,
Joe*

Colonel Joseph Peterburs, aged 100
